

Dear Sirs/Mesdames: I'm a marketing manager for a mortgage broker, I'm also a consumer. I understand how it feels to receive unwanted telephone calls, but I just say "I'm not interested." This ruling is going to greatly effect our already sinking economy; also, what does this say to us as a country? Now the government can tell you what type of job to hold?? How can certain individuals be able to call you under this ruling, but not everyone? What does the government plan to do about the mass loss of jobs and business this is going to cost?? Will your company be willing to hire me? Since the site has been shut down, I don't even have the list at hand, and am not sure when I'll be able to access it. Where's the justice in this? I know the job is annoying to some, but it's just that: A JOB. It's legal, doesn't hurt anyone, and pays mine and my staff's bills. What are you going to do about this?
